Workplace Injury Hotline & Reporting Protocols

Reporting an Injury

How and When to report your workplace injury.

The injury must be reported to CDWA immediately, or as soon as possible, by calling our injury hotline (877) 532-8542. Once you report your injury via the hotline, a copy of the incident report will be sent to you for your records. Client injuries should be reported to their case manager or 911.

Important Information

Email: InfoSafety@ConsumerDirectCare.com

Injury Hotline: (877) 532-8542

If the injury is serious and life-threatening:

- Someone should call 911.
- If the injury needs medical treatment (but is not life-threatening), you should go to an urgent-care clinic or doctor's office of your choice.
- If you can't get to a clinic or a doctor's office, you should go to the emergency room.

Reporting an Unsafe or Hazardous Condition

How and When to report your workplace is unsafe or hazardous.

If you have safety concerns or are concerned the workplace is unsafe and could cause an injury, please email your concerns to InfoSafety@ConsumerDirectCare.com.

Failure to comply with CDWA policies may result in corrective action.
